

Editorial Principles

Articles submitted to the journal should not be submitted elsewhere. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to publish any material under copyright (see the ‘Ghostwriting’ and ‘Statement for authors’ files on <http://hemispheres.iksiopan.pl/index.php/en/for-authors>).

Articles must be in English or French (in exceptional cases Arabic and German are also approved).

The article should begin with an abstract of up to 100 words, followed by five to eight keywords that should describe the article’s main arguments and conclusions.

Manuscript length should be between 30,000 and 40,000 characters (including the main text, footnotes, reference section and spaces), in 12-point Times New Roman font, with ample margins on all sides.

The entire manuscript must be 1½-spaced and numbered consecutively

The title, the author’s name, institutional affiliation and ORCID numbers (14-point font) should be at the top of the first page in such an order.

Author

Affiliation

ORCID number (obligatory).

The main body of text can be divided into paragraphs/subchapters and its names should be written in bold and centred, with 1 blank line space between different subchapters and its names. Including the “Conclusions” section is also recommended.

After copyediting and final proofing, the text, in an electronic format, should be sent to the Author for approval. After revisions and clarifications (if necessary) the text must be submitted to the Editor as soon as possible.

References and the style of in-text citation should conform with the following examples:

QUOTATION AND REFERENCES GUIDELINES

Bibliographical references should follow a modified Harvard system. Longer references or commentaries should be given in the footnotes.

Please use a dash to indicate ranges, e.g. 64–67.

IN-TEXT REFERENCES: please not use bottom references, only in-text references.

A short quotation (under two lines), should be within the body of the text and in quotation marks. If reference is at the end of the phrase it should be put into parentheses.

Example:

There is still a labelling issue when it comes to flavourings in food. It is noted that, “flavours such as vanillin which occur naturally in food are called ‘nature–identical.’ The label does not have to state where it comes from.” (Wilson, 2009, p. 257).

If the quote is more than two lines, then it should be presented as a new paragraph which is preceded by a colon and indented from the rest of the text. You do not need to use quotation marks, e.g.

Other aspects of sharī'a, such as those dealing with the rights of religious minorities, women’s rights, and human rights in general, also need to be revised and reconsidered. Contextualisation of the Qur’ānic stipulation and examination of its linguistic and stylistic structure – as discourse – would reveal that the jurists’ work was basically to unfold the meaning of such stipulation and to re-encode this meaning in various social contexts (Abū Zayd, 2006, p. 95).

When works of two or three authors are cited, please follow the rule: (Ejiga, Igwe and Kashim, 2015).

In case of four or more authors: (Johnson et al., 2001, p. 226).

Paraphrasing is strongly recommended.

In-text references to source materials (archival documents, leaflets) should be written in italics.

All works cited in the paper must be listed in a reference section at the end of the paper.

REFERENCE SECTION (a modified Harvard system): it has to be a separate part after the text, DOI is necessary in the case of journals.
